

A modern restaurant interior with a green wall, arched windows, and pendant lights. The space features a long, low, upholstered bench in a muted pinkish-brown color. Several square tables with dark tops and gold-colored frames are arranged in the room. Some tables are set with white ceramic vases containing dried flowers and small white bird figurines. The ceiling is white with several pendant lights hanging from it, each enclosed in a clear glass cage. Large windows on the left side of the room offer a view of a cityscape. The overall atmosphere is contemporary and sophisticated.
